JACOBSBAAI'S EVENING SONG (JACOBSBAAI AANDLIED)

Music: Marie Tredoux

Lyrics: Marie Tredoux

English translation: Nanette Tredoux

Climb over the dune as the sun seeks its bed
Climb through the sea-lavender
Climb over the dune as the clouds blush
You can walk fast or amble along

See, you are at the top and beneath you
The sea dons her deep blue nightgown
And the pure white lace on the edge of the hem
Lies trembling on the sand

Sit on the dune as the sun seeks its bed
Among the dune reeds
Sit on the dune as the clouds blush
Sit and linger a while
Hear the sea with her humming melody
Builds a lullaby-shelter from the fear
And soothes her children and comforts them
Humming lullaby-soothing her young ones

Climb over the dune as the sun seeks its bed
Climb through the sea-lavender
Climb over the dune as the clouds blush
You can walk fast or amble along

Wait until the moon's flickering light
Makes wild dancing patterns in the wind
Like candlelight playing on the sleeping face
Of a tired exhausted child

Sit on the dune as the sun seeks its bed
Linger a little while
Sit next to me as the clouds blush
Because she sings for you
For you and for me
Her humming lullaby
