WEST COAST FOOD (WESKUSKOS)

Music: Marie Tredoux

Lyrics: Marie Tredoux

English translation: Nanette Tredoux

I just want some bread with a west coast fish
And my face will glisten as I eat this royal dish
And I wonder how many kings have tasted this food
And I wonder if they even know how delicious it is
Add a little bunch of grapes
A slice of watermelon
An Adams fig, a sweet melon
Come closer, let me kiss you

I just want a herring and a yellow sweet potato
And I wet my mouth with the real black coffee
And I slowly savour the brown grape jam
And nibble strips of salt fish for the delicious taste
Add a little bunch of grapes
A slice of watermelon
An Adams fig, a sweet melon
Come closer, let me kiss you

I just want a little crayfish and an abalone
And the great things that can do to stomach and soul
You crack open all the little legs
And tease out the tender meat
And the spicy juices you wipe up with a piece of brown bread
Add a little bunch of grapes
A slice of watermelon
An Adams fig, a sweet melon
Come closer, let me kiss you

I just want some bread with a west coast fish
And my face will glisten as I eat this royal dish
And I wonder how many kings have tasted this food
And I wonder if they even know how delicious it is
